Privacy Notice

GDPR 2018 PRIVACY NOTICE Scope This document refers to personal data, which is defined as information concerning any living person (a natural person who hereafter will be called the Data Subject) that is not already in the public domain. The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) which is EU wide and far more extensive than its predecessor the Data Protection Act, along with the Privacy and Electronic Communications Regulations (PECR), seeks to protect and enhance the rights of EU data subjects. These rights cover the safeguarding of personal data, protection against the unlawful processing of personal data and the unrestricted movement of personal data within the EU and its storage within the EEA.

1) This Practice: Droitwich Spa Osteopaths Ltd, 3 King George Avenue, Droitwich Spa, WORCS., WR9 7BP hereafter, for the purposes of this Privacy Notice will be, referred to as "we", "us", "our" or "the Practice", is pleased to provide the following information:

2) Who we are: We diagnose and treat health conditions. Treatments are carried out in accordance with the Institute of Osteopathy's patient charter <http://www.iosteopathy.org/osteopathy/the-patient-charter/>. The Practice may also provide other treatments, about which our staff will be pleased to provide more details.

3) Personal Data:

a) For the purposes of providing treatment, we may require detailed medical information. We will only collect what is relevant and necessary for your treatment. When you visit our Practice, we will make notes which may include details concerning your medication, treatment and other issues affecting your health. This data is always held securely, is not shared with anyone not involved in your treatment, although for data storage purposes it may be handled by prevetted staff who have all signed an integrity and confidentiality agreement. To be able to process your personal data it is a condition of any treatment that you give your explicit consent to allow us to document and process your personal medical data. Contact details provided by you such as telephone numbers, email addresses, postal addresses may be used to remind you of future appointments and provide reports or other information concerning your treatment.

b) For marketing purposes, the osteopaths may also use the contact details provided by you to respond to your enquiries, including making telephone contact and emailing information to you which the practice believes may be of interest to you.

c) In making initial contact with the Practice you consent to us maintaining a marketing dialogue with you until you either opt out (which you can do at any time) or we decide to desist in promoting our services. We may occasionally also act on behalf of our patients in the capacity of the data processor, when we may promote other practitioners based at our premises, who may not be employed by us. We do not broker your data and you can ask to be removed from our marketing database by emailing or phoning the Practice using the contact details provided at the end of this Privacy Notice.

d) Some basic personal data may be collected about you from the marketing forms and surveys you complete, from records of our correspondence and phone calls and details of your visits to our website, including but not limited to, personally identifying information like Internet Protocol (IP) addresses.

e) Our website uses cookies, which are strings of information that a website stores on a visitor's computer, and that the visitor's browser provides to the website each time the visitor returns. Our website uses cookies to help us to identify and track visitors and our website access preferences. Our website visitors who do not wish to have cookies placed on their computers should set their browsers to refuse cookies before using our website.

f) We will only collect the information needed so that we can provide you with the services you require, the business does not sell or broker your data.

4) The legal basis for processing any personal data: To meet our contractual obligations obtained from explicit Patient Consent and legitimate interest to respond to inquiries concerning the services provided.

5) Legitimate interests pursued by Us: To promote treatments for patients with all types of health problems indicated for osteopathic care.

6) Consent: Through agreeing to this privacy notice you are consenting to Osteopaths processing your personal data for the purposes outlined. You can withdraw consent at any time by using the postal, email address or telephone number provided at the end of this Privacy Notice.

7) Disclosure: We will keep your personal information safe and secure, only staff engaged in providing your treatment will have access to your patient records, although our administration team will have access to your contact details so that they can make appointments and manage your account. We will not disclose your Personal Information unless compelled to, in order to meet legal obligations, regulations or valid governmental requests. The Practice may also enforce its Terms and Conditions, including investigating potential violations of its Terms and Conditions to detect, prevent or mitigate fraud or security or technical issues; or to protect against imminent harm to the rights, property or safety of its staff.

8) Retention Policy: We will process personal data during the duration of any treatment and will continue to store only the personal data needed for eight years after the contract has expired to meet any legal obligations. After eight years all personal data will be deleted, unless basic information needs to be retained by us to meet our future obligations to you, such as erasure details. Records concerning minors who have received treatment will be retained until the child has reached the age of 25.
